INSPIRING MESSAGE GIVEN GRADUATES BY REV. FORD

More Than 100 Seniors Attend Baccalaureate Ceremonies At Methodist Church

A great interest was manifested in the baccalaureate sermon and exercises held last night in the First Methodist church. Every seat and even the galleries were filled. Space was reserved for the high school graduates, over 100 in number, and they made an inspiring sight as they marched in accompanied by Professor Moyse and corps of teachers. In the absence of the pastor Dr. C. M. Crist, called away by the death of a friend, Rev. W. E. Edmonds presided.

Invocation was offered by Rev. W. W. Cookman; Scripture reading, Rev. C. M. Calderwood; prayer, Rev. O. P. Rider.

The baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Rev. E. E. Ford. It was replete with inspiring and helpful thought. He said in part:

"To the members of this large class, to the teachers, board, parents and friends, we are all happy to do you honor. I welcome you to this church tonight on behalf of the ministerial union.

Extend Congratulations

"We are all interested in you and congratulate you and your teachers upon your success. I am proud of the honor conferred upon me tonight—the privilege of addressing you; upon this commencement week of your lives. The ending of your high school life, but the commencement of other duties; and this is typical of our entire lives; beginning and ending; ending and beginning. First creeping, ending that and walking; ending our letters and be-

L. T. Rowley Host At Alumni Meeting

One of the biggest events of the season in the La Crescenta valley took place Saturday when L. T. Rowley of this city acted as host to his fellow members of the Southern California Alumni association of the University of Minnesota on his beautiful property at Sunland. The affair was a regular monthly gathering of the association and was declared by many as being the jolliest and most successful in the history of the organization. About seventy-five members took part in the gay outing.

At 3 o'clock the crowd had assembled under the giant oak trees that cover Mr. Rowley's spacious old home place, and the afternoon's program was begun. This consisted of a series of interesting games, several speeches by a number of the prominent alumni present, a short musical program, dancing, and, last but not least, a delicious hot picnic dinner. The happy party broke up at about 8 o'clock.

Although the guests of the occasion came from all parts of southern California most of them were residents of Los Angeles, Pasadena and Hollywood. The Los Angeles contingent, of which there were fifty members, made the trip in a large sight-seeing bus, while the others come via private automobiles.

Those who attended the affair from Glendale were Professor C. D. Poore of the local high school, his wife and brother H. N. Poore, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rhoades of Chamber of Commerce, and Miss Alice Tisdale.

Mr. Segerdal has been connected with the Chinese maritime customs for forty years and has just retired with a pension, after reaching the top rung of the service. Mr. and Mrs. Segerdal are touring the United States before returning to their home in England. They motored down over the ridge route with Mr. and Mrs. Smith, in this way getting a good view of the country. While here they visited Los Angeles, Pasadena, Hollywood, Long Beach, Venice, Ocean Park and Santa Monica.

Mr. and Mrs. Segerdal were very much pleased with California and the climate and expressed the desire of making this their place of residence some time in the future. On their way to New York they will stop at the Grand Canyon and also at Niagara Falls.

AUTO DRIVERS HAVE MINOR ACCIDENTS OVER WEEK-END

None Seriously Injured But Several Cars Will Go Into Repair Shops

In a series of traffic crashes over the week-end several Glendale people suffered minor injuries and a half dozen cars will go to the garage where fenders will be ironed out and radiators replaced, not to mention a few spokes repaired.

Leo Osborne of 2915 St. George street, Los Angeles, driving a Ford, had his machine bumped into by Alfred J. Merchant of 336 West Wilson avenue, while the former's car was stalled at the corner of San Fermando road and Park avenue.

A boy trying to crank the "flivver" was knocked down by the impact. Merchant blames the fog and the fact that no tail light was showing on Osborne's car while the engine wasn't running.

Collide on Narrow Road

P. A. Goodwin of 457 West California street reported that a car driven by David Mitchell, Jr., collided with his machine on a narrow road in San Gabriel canyon yesterday afternoon.

Harry S. Chase of 538 North Louise street hit a driverless Glendale Creamery wagon on Maryland street, between California and Lexington, early Sunday morning. He reported to the police that the driver was distributing milk and the wagon was on the wrong side of the street.

W. J. St. Clair of 216 Arden avenue has sent his car to the garage for repairs, it having been bumped by an unnamed driver Saturday night.

Details of the day's drive will be announced later.

Pueblo Flood Benefit At Tabernacle Tonight

Tonight at the tabernacle, corner of Orange and Harvard streets, the City Teachers' club will present "The Deestrick Skule" for the benefit of the Colorado sufferers.

It is a good cause and a good show is promised. Those who enjoyed the former performance by the teachers will be ready to tell their friends to attend and with added musical features, including a harpist and intermediate school orchestra, there is every reason to believe the great building will be filled.

Practically everything for this entertainment is donated—the tabernacle, the music, the tickets, the publicity and the time of the teachers, which will mean that a large sum should be raised here without taxing anyone more than the small admission fee.

In other columns will be found the cast of characters taking part in this performance which merits the attendance of everyone.

FACULTY IN HIGH JINKS

The faculty of the Glendale Union high school this afternoon will adjourn to Brookside park for a picnic and a plunge, it being their day of Commencement week. Mr. and Mrs. A. Roscoe Tell Fish Story And Also Produce Evidence

Catching fish to catch fish catches fish.

Bear witness to this fact Mr. and Mrs. Albert Roscoe of 617 North Adams street, Glendale.

They went to the Los Angeles river Friday morning and caught minnows for bait.

Then they motored to the Los Angeles aqueduct reservoir near San Fernando.

There they socked a "minnie" into the water and out jumped a big bass as fast as they could manipulate their lines.

After catching forty-two that weighed no less than two and one-half pounds each, they called it a day and were home in Glendale for lunch.

Maybe they had fried fish—it was Friday.

Margaret Crawford's Birthday Is Observed

On Saturday evening Miss Margaret Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Crawford of 800 South Central avenue, was fittingly and pleasantly surprised by a number of her friends when they honored her with a delightful party at the home of Miss Dorothy Rowley, 334 West Vine street. The purpose of the occasion was to celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of the popular young society bud, who was taken entirely unawares by her happy friends.

The evening was enjoyed in dancing and music, and at a late hour an enormous white-frosted birthday cake was cut by the guest of honor, and served with a delicious course of ice cream.

The house was prettily decorated with a pleasing and artistic scattering of beautiful vari-colored nasturtiums with pink and white carnations.

Those who enjoyed the pleasant occasion were Misses Margaret Crawford, Gertrude Hawkins, Catherine and Ernestine Niles, Alice Holmes, Lillian Shick and Dorothy Rowley; Messrs. Roy Selover, Donald Cowlin, Eustace Rowley, Larry Karcher and Frank McGillis.

Former Classmates At High School On Picnic

A group of young folk, many of whom were members of the graduating class of 1914 of the local high school, left Glendale late Saturday afternoon for Santa Monica, where a wienie bake was enjoyed. Later the party motored to Ocean Park, where a box party was held at the dancing pavilion there.

Those present in the party included Mr. and Mrs. Don Packer, Mr. and Mrs. James McBryde, Mr. and Mrs. John Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Charles, Alice McCoy, Miss Berry of Covina, Miss Martha Cox of Los Angeles, Alfred Knight, James Henry Ilse, John McCoy and Alfred Cox of Los Angeles.

The annual flag day exercises will be held tomorrow night in the lodge room of the local Elks' club, beginning at 8 o'clock. Gilbert of Los Angeles, member of an Oklahoma lodge, has been secured as speaker. There will also be a special musical program, as well as the regular flag day services conducted by the officers of the lodge. These exercises are open to the public.

Today's World News In Brief

(By United Press to Glendale Evening News)

KRASSIN COMING TO UNITED STATES FOR TRADE PACT

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Leonid Krassin, soviet minister of commerce, is coming to America to work for a Russian-American trade agreement, according to a dispatch.

MARINE ENGINEERS REJECT SETTLEMENT PROPOSAL

NEW YORK, June 13.—Striking marine engineers have rejected the latest proposal for settlement of the nation-wide strike which began May 11. The proposal, which was offered through government mediation contained a 15 per cent wage reduction. Engineers' representatives voted it down yesterday and forwarded their answer to Washington today.

COMMITTEE IN FAVOR OF FREE TOLLS THROUGH CANAL

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The Borah resolution providing for free tolls through the Panama canal, for American ships, engaged in the coastwise trade, was ordered favorably reported today by the senate committee on inter-oceanic canal. The vote was unanimous. Senators Borah, Johnson of California and McKinley of Illinois, Republicans; Walsh, Montana, voted for it. Chairman Borah was authorized to cast favorable votes for Senators Ransdell, Louisiana, and Trammell of Florida.

FACTIONAL DISTURBANCES ARE CONTINUED IN BELFAST

BELFAST, June 13.—Fierce factional disturbances continued here today threatening to increase the week-end death list of six. Fighting here over Saturday and Sunday developed more savagely than at any time previous. Intense Sinn Fein activity led to the fear that King George might be influenced to postpone his proposed trip here June 22 to open the Ulster parliament. The "execution" of three Sinn Feiners Saturday night led to the disturbances which occurred in every section of the city.

MAN HUNT FOR ROY GARDNER IS BEING CONTINUED

PORTLAND, June 13.—The man hunt for Roy Gardner, daring mail bandit went forward apace today in the woods and swamps in the Castle Rock-Kelso region. Following the capture of Norris Pyron, Gardner's pal, late yesterday, it was confidently believed today that Gardner could not be far off. The officers are still without definite information, however, as to Gardner's whereabouts. Reports that he was surrounded in a swamp near Kelso, Wash., thus far have produced nothing more tangible than "reports." Nothing in the way of actual proof that he is there has been brought to light.

SECRETARY OF TREASURY OPPOSES SOLDIER BONUS

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon will oppose the granting of a soldier bonus at this session of congress, it was learned today. Mellon's opposition to the plan developed after it was announced that Senator Penrose and other senate leaders were to confer with him preparatory to taking up the soldier bonus bill. Mellon's position is understood to be about the same as that of former Secretary Houston, who held that the payment of a bonus to ex-service men would disarrange the nation's finances to a dangerous extent. A sub-committee of the senate finance committee has prepared a bonus bill, although the framers of the measure object to that name and refer to it as an adjusted compensation measure. The sub-committee is to report to the full finance committee this week and a favorable report on the bill is expected. The bill has five features but Mellon is understood to oppose particularly the features which call for an outlay of money or issuance of security by the government for ex-service men.

HESITANCY HANGS OVER STOCK MARKET AT OPENING

NEW YORK, June 13.—There was an air of hesitancy at the opening of the stock market here today. The tone was easier in continuation of the trend of last week, with special pressure on oil and independent steels. The first sale of Crucible was at 56, off ¼; it then dropped to 54½. The directors meet this week to decide on common stock dividends. Mexican Petroleum opened at 128, a new low for the year and a net decline of 2¾. United States Steel sold down to last week's low of 76½, off ¼. Motors were firm, Studebaker being unchanged at 70⅞. Rails were fractionally lower. Baldwin Locomotive opened at 75¾. American Woolen was off ½ at 73½. Other opening prices included: Central Leather, 36⅞, unchanged; American Sugar, 72½, off ¼; New Haven, 16½, unchanged; General Asphalt, 64, unchanged; General Motors, 9¾, off ⅛; Canadian Pacific, 110 5-8, off ¼; Corn Products, 63, off 3-8; Chandler, 59, off ⅞.

ROTARIANS OF WORLD BEGIN SESSIONS IN SCOTLAND

EDINBURG, Scotland, June 13.—The militant strains of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" rolled through the packed convention hall here when rotarians of the world began their formal sessions today. Rotary's desire for some sort of universal peace organization was reflected in amendments proposed today for the constitution. An amendment to add to the clubs objects "the aid and advancement of international peace and good will through business and professional good fellowship," was submitted by the international board of directors. An amendment proposed by the eighteenth district in the United States was that rotary continue a study of labor problems in the hope of determining a method of reaching agreements. The Halifax, N. J., club proposed that a committee be appointed to foster international amity. Many messages were received by the convention. One of these was from Lincoln, Neb., club, which sent greetings. General Pershing was one of the signers of the cablegram. The formalities of the opening session included the call to order by President T. D. Hunter of Edinburgh. Rev. Wallace Williamson delivered the invocation. Hunter and President Alexander Wilkie of the British rotary association welcomed the convention. Albert S. Adams, of Atlanta, Ga., past international president, responded to the welcome. International President Estes Snedecor, Portland, Ore., then delivered his annual address and the convention adjourned after submitting to the official photographer.

8,195 REGISTRATION PUTS POPULATION OVER 20,000

Official Figures Are Used For Basis Of Estimate Of Glendale's Growth

Registered voters in the city of Glendale now total 8195.

This announcement was made this morning by City Clerk J. C. Sherer, who has just completed a check of the official register, making the additions and corrections reported by the diligent deputy registrars.

On the basis of two and one-half persons to every registered voter there is no question but what Glendale now can boast of more than 20,000 population.

Speaking of the great increase in registration, Mr. Sherer says that the practice of consolidating three county precincts into one for municipal voting purposes will give way to the consolidation of two precincts and instead of there being eight voting places there will be twelve.

In addition to these there will be two outside of those in which the electors will vote on the board of education.

This latter vote likely will be very light, inasmuch as there is no contest for school trusteeship.

Mrs. George H. Moore Hostess To Children

Last Saturday afternoon, Mrs. George H. Moore, superintendent of the primary department of the West Glendale Methodist Sunday school, gave a lawn party at her residence, 221 West Elk avenue, to the members of her department.

Fifty members of the department with five teachers and fifteen mothers of the little tots were entertained. Children's games were played, a toy balloon given to each and each child was a successful fisherman at a "pond" where "the catch" was another toy.

Refreshments were served on the lawn at one long table down the center of which "marched" animal crackers, headed for a miniature Noah's ark at the head of the table.

The party was a preparation for the children's day exercises at the church on Sunday morning.

Mrs. G. D. Roach Gives Party For Her Son

Mrs. G. D. Roach of 459 Milford street entertained with a luncheon party Saturday in celebration of the birthday anniversary of her son Robert. A color scheme of yellow was carried out in the table decorations of coreopsis and marigolds and in the bon bon cups and place cards. Games occupied the afternoon. Guests present included Mrs. W. W. March, Dorothy Horton, Ethel Sjostron and Mrs. Arthur Horton, all of Los Angeles, Marie Hearnshaw, Grace Miller, Wm. Empey, Gwynn Baker, John Baker, Robert Roach, George Roach and Mrs. G. D. Roach.

Daniel Campbell, Jr., Is Going To Virginia

Daniel Campbell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Campbell of North Highland avenue, leaves today with a group of eighty boys, who are studying engineering at the California Institute of Technology at Pasadena. Their destination is Camp Humphreys, Virginia, where they will remain for about six weeks.

FUNERAL OF MISS MESSING

Funeral services of Miss M. Margaret Messing, 1246 East California avenue, will be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the chapel of Pulliam & Kiefer Undertaking company. The body will be taken to St. Louis for interment. Miss Messing had only been a resident of Glendale for a short time.

Cheaper To Live In Chicago This Season

CHICAGO—The cost of living in Chicago, including the item of rents, has decreased only 5 per cent since December 1, 1920, according to figures made public by the labor bureau.

According to these figures food and clothing have decreased 10 per cent each, but rents have increased 24 per cent. The latter figures, however, were not included in the total but were used to discount miscellaneous decreases. Living costs today are 183 per cent higher, it was claimed, than they were in 1914. The cost of keeping a family of five alive and happy for a year was placed at $2,557.06.

Figures given out by a firm of wholesale produce merchants, however, gave a decline of 48 per cent in food costs during the past year.

TITHING IS TOPIC OF ADDRESS BY BUSINESS MAN

Speaks At Methodist Church On Necessity Of Giving Portion Of Income

At the morning service at the First Methodist church instead of the customary sermon there was an address by M. L. Godfrey, a business man of Los Angeles. His subject was "Tithing." His address was an able presentation of the subject. Treating of its origin, its importance in the life of the Jewish nation. How Christ sanctioned it and brought it on down to present day conditions. Showing that the individuals and churches that have adopted and are practicing it are the live active agencies in the spread of the gospel and uplifting of the world. He opened his remarks by saying:

"We are facing a new day, a new time in the world's history. This is the greatest day in the history of the church; and the question that confronts us, 'How shall we measure up to it?' Not armies and navy, nor education can bring peace. It was the great educational countries of the world that engaged in the bloody world war.

"Lloyd George has truthfully said, 'Only the gospel of Christ can bring peace.' The message that Christ gave to the world and church 2000 years ago is not yet fulfilled, and we are expected to help. There are two ways in which we can do our part. We can either go or send someone else. The great centenary movement which pledged 115,000,000 is an advance step. It is the lack of money that largely stands in the way of the work.

Necessity of Tithe

"More men are available than are the means to equip and maintain at the front, and here is where the necessity of the tithe comes in. Just like the old Israelites, we are too prone to hang on to our money, but God has provided this plan. The best plan yet devised. All that is needed is our obedience; and until adopted and put into general practice the church will never measure up to its privilege.

"In ten years we can carry the gospel to the entire world. Tithing blesses the individual, brings joy and smiles into the life; tithing is partnership with Christ. I can assure you, business men, it is a great thing in business to have a good and great posture. It will produce a clean business."

Cites His Own Case

In conclusion Mr. Godfrey told how the Lord had blessed him both financially and spiritually in adhering to this daily practice; how he keeps a strict account with the Lord. Out of every $100, $10 goes to this credit; $100 out of every $1000. He appealed to parents to both practice it and teach it to the children; especially urged it upon the young men and women.

Chandler, Cleveland Prices Are Reduced

One of the most unusual announcements along auto row in Glendale today is that of Bartlett & French, Chandler and Cleveland dealers at Harvard street and Brand boulevard, who state the Chandler Six is selling again at $1785, the same price people paid for the 1913 models. In other words, the pre-war level is reached in motordom with all of the improvements which have come with the intervening years.

The Cleveland Six also has taken a decided drop in prices and this popular car may now be bought for $1295, equipped with cord tires. In both the Chandler and the Cleveland purchasers of motorcars are said to see big bargains and unquestionably the sales of Bartlett & French will indicate the demand created by these extraordinary price concessions.

This Little Town Has Three Separate Names

PLAINVIEW, Texas—The little town of Aiken, twelve miles from Plainview, is probably the only town in the state of Texas, or for that matter, in the entire United States, that enjoys the luxury of having three separate names, Aiken, Floco and Meteor.

This town originally went by the name of Floco, a compound of the county, in which county it lies. Floco first syllables of the two words, Floyd is the postoffice name of the little city to this day. But about ten years ago, when the Santa Fe railroad built through Floco, the railroad officials renamed the town Aiken, and it is by its latter name that the place is most generally known today.

Meanwhile the Meteor schoolhouse, originally situated about two miles from Floco, was moved to Floco, and the town was then by many persons, and today still is, to some extent, referred to as Meteor.

So that if you want to go to Floco or Meteor and the conductor puts you off at a place called Aiken, don't be discouraged. You are where you wanted to go.

As Shakespeare says: "What's in a name?"

Judge Landis Smashes At Commercial Ball

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, June 13.—It's a good thing Judge Landis has a long-time contract at the head of baseball's machine. A few more moves like he made in the Groh case and the magnates would be tagging him for the ash can.

The high commissioner of the game took an awful wallop at the Giants, the strongest power in the National league when he decided that Groh must play the season out with the Cincinnati Reds if he is to play at all.

The Giants had a locker ready in the clubhouse for the holdout third baseman of the Reds, who was to be traded for Goldie Rapp, Benny Kauff and Jesse Barnes as soon as Groh and Kauff had been put back in good graces.

A large bundle of cash with which the New York club is plentifully supplied was to go along to act as balm for the heartbreak that Garry Herrmann would suffer in being forced to get rid of his star third baseman.

The move of Judge Landis is a direct shot at commercialism, one of the real evils of the game.

The Giants could deny pennant buying till the cows come home. Nevertheless, they would have been doing virtually that same thing if they secured Groh.

The Pittsburg Pirates, with a home-made team that is making a brave fight for the pennant, has the sympathy of the fans. The move made by Judge Landis in blocking a deal that would almost give the pennant to New York the day the trade was completed will be joyfully received by everyone but John McGraw and Garry Herrmann.

INSPIRING MESSAGE GIVEN GRADUATES BY REV. FORD

ginning our reading, and so it goes on. Let us pause for a moment and look back at the things we have left. The cradles, cribs and carriages; the playthings, fascinations, the small garments of childhood. Progress is measured by the miles we have passed. The apostle says, 'I follow after if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus. But this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark.'

"This is the beginning and not the end of your labors. As we go into the mountains and follow the trails, we need some bold peak, some prominent cliff toward which we can direct our steps; on the trackless sea or desert we need the compass, so we can keep to our course. So I urge you all this evening to read the signposts and make sure where you are going.

Confusion of Crowds

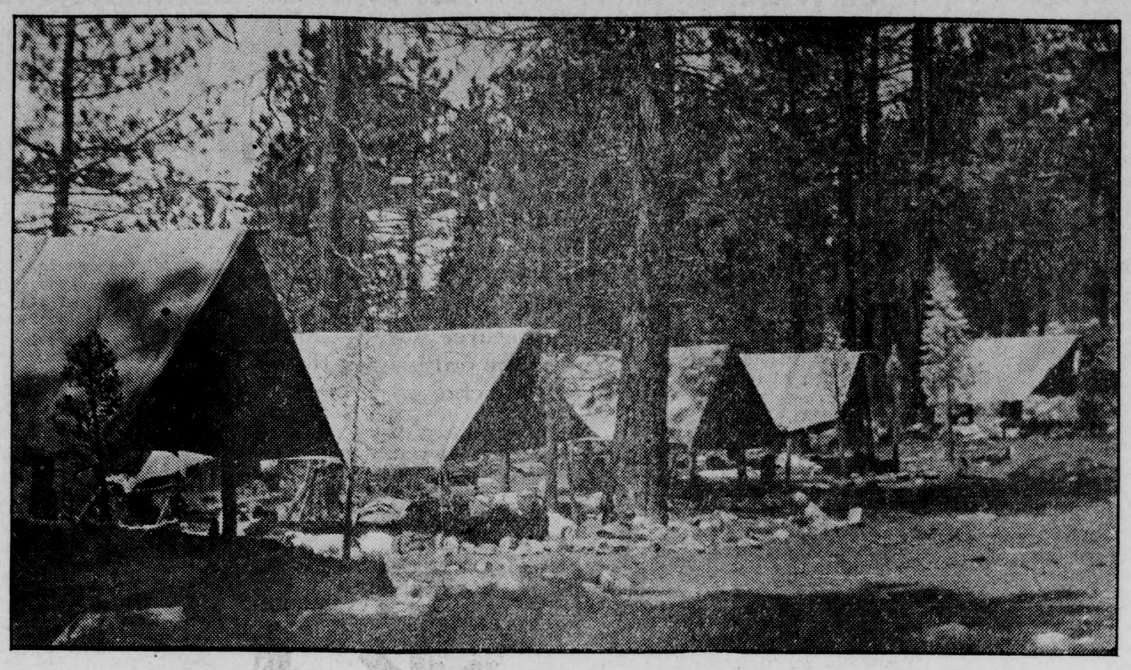
"I trust that you all have a goal. It is just as easy to get lost in a crowd as in a forest. Do not be confused by the crowds, by the bustle or the applause of the grandstand. Young people you need a goal and you need a guide, and there is ever by your side the man of Galilee. It is wonderful to be born in this period of the world's history. And so value these days as to help build a better day; be true to this task and you will take part in a greater commencement when the diplomas will be signed by the lord himself. In God's great firmament of blue there are a great many stars, but only one north star. Many prizes will attract your attention.

"Money, pleasure, selfish ambitions will call to you, but there is only one call that will satisfy your soul, your higher nature, and that is the call to service, useful service. In the field of nature there are three great forces—air, water and fire. But over above them is man. The greatest factor for good is man, cooperating with God. This world needs you; your clear brains and clean hearts. Who dare stand with a minority for the right? Who can sacrifice with a smile? Who can remember others? Who will not sell their liberty for a mess of pottage?

"I hope that many of you can go to college, but the greatest thing available to all is to have Christ. This is my wish for all of you."

A steamship recently dashed into Falmouth, England, afire, after a race of 100 miles to save the lives of her eighty-eight passengesr and her crew. The fire was discovered while the passengers were asleep and the captain, keeping them in ignorance of their danger, prepared the boats for launching and made for Falmouth under full steam.

Glendale Boys to Attend Y. M. C. A. Summer Camp



Scene taken at the Y. M. C. A. summer camp conducted for boys. A number of Glendale boys will attend the camp in the San Gabriel mountains and Rex C. Kelly, local secretary, is arranging the details for the local delegation.

The committee in charge of the Los Angeles county Y. M. C. A. summer camp, for which the concluding plans are now being made, wishes to call the attention of its benefits to the parents and friends of the boys of Glendale. There is only one purpose in mind in conducting such a camp, it is:

That boys may be helped toward better manhood through the experiences of life in the open under the direction of trained Christian leadership.

The program is arranged that this purpose may be realized to the fullest. Daily Bible study, grace at meals, the closing talks and prayer at the evening camp-fire, help to bring the God of the out-doors in a natural way to every boy.

Rex C. Kelley, local Y. M. C. A. secretary, is arranging details for the delegation of Glendale boys planning to attend the Y. M. C. A. summer camp. Mr. Kelley will give complete information as regards the purpose of this camp, which is located in the San Gabriel mountains.

Every leader is a man who has been carefully selected for his ability to enter into the sports and fun, but primarily for his Christian character and example. Character is contagious. Any program of boys' work which omits the opportunity for the boy to express his religious and devotional nature is based on ignorance of boy life. The fourfold emphasis of physical, social and educational is combined with the religious in every Y. M. C. A. camp. Boys who have attended one or more of these outings are the best judges of whether this sort of a program works.

Eagle Rock Builds Fast

With more than $50,000 in building permits issued during the month of May, Eagle Rock now boasts of $300,000 in new structures. There is a possibility of that thriving district hitting the million mark in 1921.

Tujunga May Incorporate

Tujunga's Chamber of Commerce now has a committee busy preparing plans for the incorporation of that community. It will be the first step in putting that thriving residential section on the map and bringing to it those things which a city stands for.

Plan Church Chapel

Catholics of Tujunga, who have been holding services at the home of Mrs. Mary Forster, are planning the construction of a temporary chapel. A bazaar will be held next Friday night at Bolton hall to aid in financing the plans.

Eagle Rock to Help

Eagle Rock will aid Glendale in the entertainment of Christian Endeavorers attending the state convention here the latter part of June. A house to house canvass is now under way in the little city to the east of us.

Two Goats Bring $500

Five hundred dollars for a pair fo goats. That is the price received by Miss Emma Kraft of East Tujunga who sold them to Charles A. Stevens of Chicago.

Carrying Real Evidence

When Harry N. Fowler left La Crescenta for his Chicago home, he carried with him in a specially constructed valise two quackless ducks. Seems that when he told his friends in Illinois that such a variety existed in California, they thought he was infected with a germ said to exist here. Maybe they'll prove it if those ducks find their voices.

Want To Avoid Kissing Bug? Well, Read This

CHICAGO—"P's" mean kisses. Therefore eliminate them from your vocabulary if you desire to be saved from the "kissing bug," said a warning promulgated at Northwestern university.

In these care-free times the co-eds have been warned that a puckered mouth is too kissable to be safe.

And this warning has put the sub debs in a quandry. In order to be safe she must eliminate from her daily meals her favorites, because of their "P's" and consequent puckered lips.

If she desires soup she dare not ask for it by that name. She must order it in the name of boullion. Her fish meal, too, must be confined to salmon and cod. To order perch or pickerel would bring her too close within the clutches of the kissing bug.

Likewise to say "Pardon me" and "Beg your pardon" would imperil the girl. She must say instead, therefore, "Excuse me" and be sure and eliminate the please.

Conservative co-eds are promulgating a revision of their mother's motto "watch your P's and Q's" to watch your "P's."

Jackie Coogan at Home

Jackie Coogan gets home today to film five special productions which will follow "Peck's Bad Boy" as one of the most successful films of the year. Jackie has been in New York and made the greatest hit of the big pile because of the funny antics he staged in front of Pope & Tollet's and other Glendale stores.

Ship Eggs by Water

First the oranges went east by water, then the lemons and the apples and the onions. Now they are going to ship "fresh" eggs by water. They are packed in refrigerators and reach their destination in eighteen days. However, if the ice plant balks on the trip through the canal zone, three days more and the eggs will be chickens.

Missing Heiress Located

A soldier from Fort McArthur danced with a woman at Long Beach and later escorted her home. She confided to him she had a husband. The soldier did an unusual thing. He wrote the man telling him about the unusual incident. This led to the reconciliation yesterday of Mrs. Ola Bellah, 25, missing heiress of Roswell, N. M., with her husband, Morgan Bellah, 51.

Author Divorce Defendant

John Fleming Wilson, writer of sea stories, was the defendant in a separate maintenance suit brought against him by his wife, Mrs. Alberta A. Wilson, in Judge Summerfield's court in Los Angeles today.

Mrs. Wilson charges that her husband has failed to live up to a separation agreement made between the two some time ago, wherein she was to receive $100 a week for two years, a ranch at Lone Pine and Wilson's entire interest in two of his plays.

Wilson is now writing plays for a motion picture company here.

In an attempt to solve the local economic problem, the Tyrol has introduced "Traveler's Money." This Children's day program was the most successful one that this church has ever had.

Automatic Beacons To Oust Old Lighthouses

LONDON—The ancient figure of romance, the lighthouse keeper, is soon to be replaced by automatic machinery.

Some of the more famous lighthouses are already equipped so automatically that they will work themselves and can be left unattended for twelve months.

The new system is claimed to be more reliable than even the keepers, and it is said that even if one of the acetylene gas mantles gives out or become damaged another moves automatically into position.

The "sun-valve," now to be installed, is an apparatus sensitive to light. As soon as daylight gives place to dusk this valve is actuated and the lights come on; in the morning, by a reverse action, the light sensitive valve duly turns them off.

The Minnesota house of representatives has passed a bill to the effect that persons supplying newspapers with false information for publication will be guilty of a misdemeanor.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR C. E. DELEGATION BEING PLANNED

Glendale Citizens Are Urged To Volunteer To Provide Rooms And Breakfast

In order that the committee in charge of the entertainment for the Christian Endeavor delegates might make more complete plans, the members met at a party Saturday night at the Central Christian church bungalow. There were about 100 members of the different Christian Endeavor societies in Glendale present and everyone had a splendid time, regardless of the work that is ahead of them.

It is up to the entertainment committee to find entertainment for the 4000 delegates that are coming to Glendale June 25-29 for the state Christian Endeavor convention. In order to do this, they were divided into ten different groups. Each member of these groups will be given a certain part of the city to canvass to find sleeping accommodations for the out-of-town delegates. It is the desire of the committee to obtain as much free entertainment as possible, but if this cannot be secured for all of the delegates, they will pay 50 cents a night for sleeping room and 35 cents for breakfast.

Public Asked to Help

The committee is asking that everyone who possibly can take some one in for a night or more, and if possible give them breakfast. This is going to be a hard task for the committee, but they are all willing workers and feel sure that they will receive the help of the people of this community.

The people in charge of the party Saturday night were: Games, Ethel Preston, Marjorie Smith, Mrs. Edwin Murphy and Mrs. C. C. Stoler; refreshments, Mrs. West, Mrs. James Newton and Mrs. King; decorations, Mrs. Hewitt and Mrs. Frazee.

The evening was spent in games, after which refreshments were served. The remainder of the evening was taken up with the business meeting and a great deal was accomplished.

Claquers, men whose duty it is to create applause in the Buenos Aires theatres, have demanded the right to be unionized together with the rest of the theatrical profession. Their activity in this respect is causing considerable confusion and discussion among the organizers of a union which is to include dressmakers, scene shifters and others who live behind the scenes.

Vaudeville Road Show At Glendale Tonight

Headed by the great Juvenile Revue, the Meiklejohn & Dunn vaudeville road show makes its initial bow to local audiences at The Glendale theatre tonight. The Juvenile Revue has ten clever kiddies in the cast. Other numbers include Scotty Duncan, who was the star single of Pantages two weeks ago; Arnold & Taylor, Orpheum favorites; and Mark Nelson, eccentric juggler. There will be no raise in prices for this performance which would cost twice the money in Los Angeles.

Harry Carey, starring in "The Wallop," his latest Universal photo-drama which opened yesterday for two days, returned to a western town after a long absence to claim the girl he loved. He discovered that she loved a younger man, made sure that he was worthy of her according to the standards of the old west and then set out to help him through the fastest series of perilous misadventure ever filmed.

That, in brief, is the theme upon which this highly entertaining Universal picture play is based and in the telling of which the popular star rises to rare dramatic heights.

Miss Bullard, in addition to her mastery of the piano, has done some composing. She has come to Southern California for the summer and probably will be heard here several times.

Telephone Operators Enjoy First Outing

On Friday night of last week about thirty-five local telephone operators and their husbands, sweethearts and friends held their first outing of the summer season in the form of a wiener bake on one of the hills near Ivanhoe. The novel affair proved to be enjoyable to all present and it was at once decided upon to hold another similar event in the near future.

Besides the scheduled "wienie" bake the evening was spent in an excellent musical program by several of the popular "hello" girls and a number of songs by the entire crowd of merrymakers. Ed Moniot, the talented Glendale musician, accompanied the various singers on the banjo throughout the evening.

PROBLEM OF PRAYER REV.W.E.EDMONDS' SUNDAY TOPIC

Believer Who Lives Worldly Life Has Not Right To Expect, Says Pastor

A resume of the sermon by Rev. W. E. Edmonds at the Presbyterian church follows:

"The subject of prayer touches very vitally every life. Prayer is not altogether supplication; it is also largely revelation. When John Knox, the Scotch reformer, was dying, his wife asked if she should read from the 'Word.' 'Yes, that chapter where I first cast anchor.' And she read the seventeenth chapter of John. It is said of the great French preacher, Bossuet, that he asked for this chapter at least sixty times during his last illness. Through the ages John 17 has been the great Christian dependence. Go to it for your daily food. No profounder Scripture than this is to be found in all God's word. This is the great high-priestly prayer of our Lord, and there is none like it. It naturally falls into three parts—Christ's prayer for himself, for his disciples, for all subsequent believers—and this means, for me. Jesus Christ, the son of the highest, prayed for me. You are included in this, the greatest utterance of Jesus' life.

What Is Prayer?

"We studied faith. If faith lies at the base of all life in God, prayer is the cap-stone that completes. What is prayer? It is supplication, asking; but also it is revelation. In all true prayer vision has a large part. What you see, perceive, enters into what you pray. Vision of the ripening harvest calls for reapers; visions of men lost calls for a Savior. Peter, seeing the waves boisterous, cried, 'Lord! Save, or I perish!' When we see the world lost then we are done with trivialities, and get to doing. This truth explains our Lord's all-night prayers—an all-night spreading of His whole spirit before the Father. It is part of the plan of God to reveal Himself to the one praying. Do you ever see Jesus? Prayer is a converse, a communion. He has much to say, and we to learn. Giving and receiving are but a small part of the great program of prayer which can only be revealed through the habit of absolute aloneness with God.

Warning Is Given

"Here is a warning: The believer who is living a worldly life has no right to expect anything from God. The carnal spirit cannot triumph in prayer. Worldly alliance is spiritual adultery. God says to every believer, 'I am married to you.' What right has one who is flirting with the world to come to God for favors in a tight place?

"In the last chapter of the epistle of James Elijah is held up as an example in fervent prayer, 'a man of like passions as we are,' whose faith won out in spite of all he could see. Lesson, do not allow your faith to get down to the level of your sight. The prayer of faith is answered on the plane of faith.

"Now, concerning united prayer. Christ says, 'If two of you shall agree as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them,' if two of you shall symphonize, a musical term, meaning agreement in harmony. Power of united supplication depends not on numbers, but on real agreement.

"There is a danger of selfishness in our prayers. We may be asking for something to gratify ourselves, running after the loaves and fishes.

"When it comes to sickness of the body we have no need to pursue a false teaching; we have God's own word. There is a firm poise that comes when you are based on God.

"What do you want the thing for that you ask? Are your prayers of such a character that God can say, 'Amen' to them?"

Dr. William C. Mabry Answers Questionnaire

Editor Evening News—It seems to be desirable from many standpoints that candidates for councilman under our new city charter announce that fact and present to the public a statement as to their platform.

In complying with this custom I believe I can best make my position clear by publishing my reply to the Good Government League, a copy of which is enclosed herewith.

If you consider the matter favorably I would be pleased to have it published in your valuable paper and will thank you therefor.

Respectfully yours,
DR. WM. C. MABRY.

J. D. Hull, Secretary Good Government League:

Dear Sir—Acknowledge receipt your favor the 6th. inst. requesting me, as candidate for councilman, city of Glendale (election June 28th) to declare myself regarding matters of interest to the Good Government league as indicated in its questionnaire.

I take pleasure in complying with the request because I have always advocated such an impartial, unbiased organization to pass upon civic problems and the qualifications of all candidates for public office.

In my reply I have stated my residence in Glendale (and Tropico at my present address) as eight years, nine months, and that I have not held an elective position in any city government. I have answered "No" to questions one to five and "Yes" to number six, substituting however the words "mistaken zeal" for your "reprehensible and un-American."

The questionnaire was a disappointment to me in two particulars. First, in confining its public service inquiry to "an elective office in any city government." The answer 'No' in my case ignores over eight years administrative and executive service for the United States, seven years sanitary and administrative work for large mining companies and for railways, five years as health officer through three administrations in Tropico, my constant contact and cooperation during that time with the Los Angeles county health officers' association and county sanitary affairs, and many other semi-public positions such as president Chamber of Commerce, superintendent public playground association, etc.

Second—I feel that the pledge presented is rather sweeping and general, allowing opportunity for controversy in questions of public policy, and to avoid such misunderstanding have inserted after "privileges" the words "under proper police regulations." With this addition I have signed the "pledge" understanding it to be a general statement of principle and adherence to the intent of the six preceding questions.

In conclusion permit me to add that I believe in conducting the affairs of our city on an efficient and economical basis; securing and retaining only necessary employees, each directly qualified for the position to be filled, preferably through civil service examinations; providing essentials in keeping with the raipd growth of Glendale so far as possible and consistent with our assets; postponing luxuries and forced improvements until financial strain is removed and administrating civic affairs with impartial justice, common sense, without fear or favor and as a public trust; without additions or reservations. I further believe that the greatest problems confronting Glendale are along sanitary and utility lines in which I should be able to be of special service to the city.

If the voters of Glendale see fit to include me in the new council, while I cannot guarantee to make no mistakes or to please all in every act, I shall do the best I can to be true to myself and all of them.

Yours, for the welfare of Glendale, Dr. William C. Mabry.

LOCAL ELKS DEFEAT VISITORS; 4 TO 3 AND 10 INNINGS

Fans On Tip Toes Throughout Base Ball Battle Provided On Home Grounds

At last the Glendale Elks baseball team has hit its stride; after playing a listless and indifferent brand of ball for the past few weeks the purple-and-white clad athletes finally gathered themselves together and yesterday trimmed the squad representing the New Method company of Los Angeles by a 4 to 3 count. The game was no walkaway, however, as it took ten innings for the locals to turn the trick. It was a real contest, such as is not usually witnessed at a semi-pro game, and each of the 500 excited fans went home with the satisfaction that he'd seen the best tussle of the season.

The game was replete with spectacular plays, impossible catches and thrills in general, the result being in grave doubt until the last runner had punched the cash register. As usual "Chuck" Flanders, the Elks' diminutive second baseman, pulled a couple of hair-raisers. Twice during the game did this midget scintillate himself by leaping into the heavens and stabbing line drives that were labeled for three-base clouts. Crane, who ably assists 'Chuck' in guarding the keystone sack, also made himself conspicuous when, with a runner on second and two out in the fourth inning, he retired the side by making one of the prettiest one-handed stabs ever seen on any diamond. Again we reiterate, "They can't be beat."

No Runs In First Six

The first six innings were as free from runs as Glendale is from pool halls, and the fans were beginning to believe that they were going to spend a scoreless afternoon. Both flingers were turning the batters back as fast as they approached the plate until the procession began to resemble a snappy game of follow-the-leader. During this time "Bullet Bill" Bolin allowed one hit, a single, in the fourth by Hoodman, while "Smoky Joe" Slogsdill of the New Methods was touched for three bingles.

Things began to happen in the last half of the seventh when Farner, first man to bat, broke the ice with a clean single to left. He immediately pilfered second base while Bolin was fanning the ozone. Brown, the slugging backstop, then proceeded to pick out one of Slogsdill's fast ones and planting a two-bagger in right center, scored the first run of the day.

Not content with this one run lead the home boys came back in the very next round with two more markers on walks to Bolin and Crane, a neat sacrifice by Doll, and a terrific two-base clout by Center Fielder Buck.

Those extra two runs proved to be very essential in the next inning, however, when the sewing machine lads suddenly picked up a couple of stitches and tied the score. After two were out and the game was apparently sewed up Bolin suddenly weakened and allowed three successive singles, and these, coupled with an error, resulted in a trio of runners crossing the rubber. He then settled down and fanned the next customer.

And Then It Happened

The first half of the tenth passed sans excitement and Crane, the first Elk batter, opened the last half by an easy out to first. Things were scheduled for a change, however, when Buck, who had already accounted for two funs, strolled determinedly to the platter. After looking over a pair of strikes he "whaled" the next one to deep center for his second two-bagger of the day. He came in with the winning run in a few moments when Farner sent a hot one through the shortstop.

Jim Ralph and Allen Buck, the two newly acquired players obtained by Manager Salmacia, made their initial local appearance in yesterday's game. They are both sterling semi-professional performers and "Vine" is to be congratulated in adding them to his line-up. Ralph is former thirdbaseman of the Roseville Athletic club and is an exceptionally fast player. Buck has been cavorting in center field for the L. A. A. C. squad and is a slugger from the word "go."

Jackie Coogan Feature Palace Grand Picture

The inimitable Jackie Coogan triumphs again on the screen in his latest motion picture, "Peck's Bad Boy," which opened at the Palace Grand Theatre yesterday to capacity crowds. It is one of Broadway's biggest hits and mostly filmed in Glendale.

The 6-year old youngster demonstrates in this latest production that he is a born actor and that he well merits the distinction of being starred in spite of his extreme youth.

As "Peck's Bad Boy," Jackie is, to the life, the mischievious youngster who gets into a varied assortment of boyish scrapes. His ingenuous scheme to see the circus, his playfulness which results in the escape of a lion, the uproar he causes in church by introducing a novelty in the way of several hundred ants which take a liking to his father, and the part he plays in a love affair are some of the high-lights in this delightfully refreshing photoplay. The subtitles, which were written by Irvin S. Cobb, are delicious in their humor, the photography is excellent, and the work of the entire case admirable.

Doris May plays the role of the Girl in the Case, while Wheeler Oakman portrays the Man. James Corrigan is seen as Mr. Peck, and Lillian Leighton as Mrs. Peck. Raymond Hatton is the village grocer, Charles Hatton is Jackie's Buddie, and Baby Gloria Wood is his affinity. "Tar Baby," Jackie's dog, is played by Queenie.

Skirts To Be Longer Next Fall; Half Inch

CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 13.—They're going to wear 'em longer next fall, men.

Who and what?

Why, ladies skirts.

But don't get downhearted, skirts will only be a half inch to an inch longer.

The Cleveland garment manufacturers' association now conducting a style show here, has decreed this.

The directoire influence is seen in coats, suits and dresses now being shown for fall delivery. There is a dash of Oriental in the embroidery.

Lots of embroidery will be the style this fall, particularly suit coats and dresses embroidered in gray leather. Silk thread, tinsel and some fringe also will be used for trimming.

Suit coats will be long, reaching nearly to the hem of the skirt.

Shawl collars have given way to a small choker, standing collar.

Navy, black, brown and taupe will be popular colors in the order mentioned.

Chandler owners take pleasure in telling us how their cars stand up under hard service. The Chandler "stands up" because it is correct in engineering and sturdy construction. And back of this great car stands one of the distinctively stable companies of the automobile industry.

Chandler built the first light six to sell for less than $2000. That was eight years ago. Today it's a bigger car, more powerful, more highly refined. And its price today is just what it was eight years ago—still the most closely priced fine car on the market.

In this period of eight years more than 140 manufacturers making automobiles at the time Chandler entered the field, or who have gone into the business within this period—have discontinued for one reason or another. The Chandler lives and thrives.

It is natural for Chandler owners to so highly indorse their cars, for there is something real back of the Chandler. Always the Chandler has paved the way in price leadership, and it is more conspicuous in this respect today than ever before in its history.

The mechanical superiority of the Chandler makes wide appeal everywhere, and this, coupled with most beautiful and restful bodies, makes the Chandler stand out from all other medium priced cars.

Twenty thousand owners know how good the Cleveland is. They tell us of its unusual performance, its power, its flexibility, its wonderful riding qualities, its long hill climbs, its work on bad roads and its remarkable endurance.

Owners emphasize the Cleveland's economy—12,000 to 15,000 miles on its big four-inch cord tires, of gasoline mileage that they have never before experienced, and of extraordinary economy of upkeep.

The Cleveland is, without the slightest exaggeration, a most unusual car—"the better car," as its owners have called it. It is a mechanical achievement.

Beautiful types of body, roomy and graceful lines of design, the highest quality of upholstery, most comfortable cushioning and lustrous, lasting finish feature the Cleveland Six.

Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Hosts To 32 Friends

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Chandler of 733 South Brand boulevard entertained a group of thirty-two friends at their home Saturday night, all of whom are at present or have been teachers at Grant school, Hollywood, of which Mr. Chandler is principal.

During the evening the guests were surprised by the shrill ringing of the door bell, the cause being a messenger with telegrams for each guest, signed by Dan Cupid, telling them of a special delivery letter addressed to them, which they were instructed to find at various hidden places throughout the house. These letters proved to contain the announcement of Miss Harriet James of Los Angeles, who has had charge of the music department work at Grant school, and Edward Simmons of Pasadena.

The entire house was decorated with yellow coreopsis.

Games, piano solos and vocal solos by the guests occupied the remainder of the evening, during which refreshments were served. This proved to be a real treat for the guests, individual trays containing some very delicious home made cake, yellow ice cream, candy wafers and nut baskets. On each tray the guests also found a walnut which contained their fortune printed on slips of paper. The reading of these caused much merriment.

ABOUT $100 FROM DANCE

Approximately $100 was cleared for the American Legion and its band at a street dance held Saturday night on Broadway at the west intersection with Brand boulevard. Director R. D. Crawford and his players dispensed with lively tunes until after 11 o'clock while Miss Elizabeth Bullard of the Women's Auxiliary, American Legion, assisted by six teachers of the Los Angeles telephone school sold candy and ice cream and cake. Their work netted $35, the candy being donated by teachers in the telephone school.

Airplane Patrols For Forest Service Planned

SAN DIEGO—Despite the fact that a good part of the equipment of the army flying base at March Field, Riverside, has been moved to Florida, the plans of the forestry service and the naval air service to patrol the national forests with airplanes are being perfected. The date when the air forestry patrol service goes into effect is July 1. It had originally been intended to commence it on June 1, but the moving of the army equipment delayed the plans.

About seventy-five planes flown by naval air pilots will work in the service, which will cover the vast areas of three national forests—the Cleveland national forest, the Los Angeles national forest, and the Santa Barbara national forest.

Every day when the weather permits the planes will take off at March field and cover every foot of the areas above the forests, carefully on guard against the least signs of smoke in unpopulated areas. Alternate landing places will be North Island, at San Diego, and the several flying fields around Los Angeles.

Lookouts on all the highest peaks have already been sent to their stations. The naval air service, in conjunction with the forestry service, is perfecting a new system of signalling by which the lookouts and the pilots can converse.

The lookouts, according to the plans, will employ a series of colored panels which can be quickly shifted in a regular code, which the pilot will reply by means of "smoke-spurt" signals. Thus a pilot can report a fire to the lookout, who can telephone the forestry service, instead of having to waste any time going back to the airplane base.

The work is under the supervision of Forest Ranger S. A. Boulden, stationed here. The immediate management will be under the direction of J. B. Stephenson, former district ranger at Corona. He will act as liason officer between the naval authorities and the forestry service.

Northern Pacific Mail Wins Race With Death

SEATTLE—The crack Northern Pacific mail train won its race with death.

Howard Snively, eight years old, was on an outing at a farm near Prosser. Howard was riding "double-back" with a playmate when the horse suddenly bolted for the barn. There was not sufficient clearance between the horse's back and the top or the barn door to allow the boys to ride in. Howard's playmate slid off the horse uninjured, but Howard was caught between the horse's back and the top of the door.

With a shriek of pain he fell to the ground, his spine bent almost double. There was no way of giving him even a slim fighting chance of life at Prosser. Medical skill was balked by the lack of surgical equipment. It was feared Howard's back was broken.

Howard's father determined that his son must be brought to Seattle. The fast mail train, the crack train of the Northern Pacific ordinarily carries no passengers. It was the first train through. Hastily the blocks were thrown, and the train flagged at Prosser.

Howard was taken aboard one of the mail cars, and made as comfortable as possible by the mail clerks.

Keeping to its schedule to the dot the train slid into Seattle at 8 o'clock the next morning, with Howard still alive. An ambulance was waiting. The lad was rushed to the Columbus sanitarium, where an X-ray was taken.

Howard was found to have a fracture of the eighth vertebra, but it is believed that he will pull through—thanks to the mail train, which won its race with death and brought the boy back where science could save his life.

Buyers' Strike May Cause Coal Shortage

CHICAGO—A buyer's coal strike, now prevalent, is precipitating the country into a coal famine similar to that of last year, according to Amedee J. Casey, editor of a coal magazine, here today.

So serious is the condition that Chicago loan banks are devising systems of loaning money to consumers in an effort to encourage purchase of coal at the reasonable rates said to be existing at this time. Unless coal is purchased now, Casey said, an inevitable famine will take place during the fall and winter. The railroads now are in a position to handle coal shipments, he added. In the fall and winter months, shipments from the mine will be more infrequent because of the lack of coal at the mines, shut down due to the lack of demand.

"The possibilities of trouble are greater this year than they ever have been," Casey declared. "The mines are capable of storing a small amount of coal. But this amount will not be sufficient to meet the needs during the cold spell."

Coal production since the first of the year has been 115,258,000 tons compared with 153,553,000 last year, Casey said. This is due to the lack of demand.

"I do not see anything now that can avert a serious shortage of coal next winter unless the consumer wakes up to the appeal of the operators to buy now, so as to keep the mines in operation, Casey concluded. "Those who have heeded the repeated warnings and have obtained their winter's supply of coal have every reason to congratulate themselves when the cold weather comes."

In 1900 there were 184 farms on Manhattan Island where now there are but five. The land there devoted to this purpose is rapidly diminishing.

Dr. Frank L. Riley Talks About Success

The "Psychology of Success" was the subject of the lecture delivered yesterday by Dr. Frank L. Riley, at the New Thought Center.

Dr. Riley defined psychology as the bridge between physics and metaphysics. He explained how the law of cohesion and adhesion in physics may be applied to metaphysics, how by thoughts, one attract both desirable and undesirable, failure and success. He stated that by anticipating a certain outcome, one builds an image of it in his mind, just as the architect plans a structure. Then comes realization; for "what a man thinketh in his heart, so is he." The result is either failure or success, determined by the nature of thoughts, he said. He explained the difference between thinking in the conscious mind, and thinking in the heart. To idly declare to one's self that the future will bring about certain desirable ends is foolish, but, as thoughts are established in the sub-conscious mind, so is failure or success determined, he said.

The discourse was Emersonian in the respect that he declared a man, who would succeed, must rely upon that still, small voice from within. For guidance, he must go deeper than mere reasoning; he must listen to the dictates of his sub-conscious mind, and be not persuaded by the opinions of others in conflict with these dictates, said the speaker.

Beginning with June 19, Dr. Riley will give a popular series of lectures upon psychological topics.

Many vessels on the seas are without radio equipment and in these cases the warnings are to be passed on from ships receiving them by other means when such vessels are encountered.

American Property Is Looted In China Riot

HANKOW, China, June 13.—Mutinous troops in Wu Chang, capital of the province of Hupeh, were under arrest today after they had destroyed much property, looted American property and killed scores of persons. The soldiers were quieted when 1300 men were given their back pay.

First killing a number of their officers, the mutineers spread through the city, congregating in great numbers at the government bank. Loose cash in the institution was seized. The men then turned to the mint. The director in charge was seized and subjected to torture. He denied admission to the big vaults. Meanwhile several thousand had scattered through the city throwing flaming brands among flimsily-constructed dwellings. Hundreds of homes were destroyed.

Residents were thrown into a panic. Fire fighting apparatus was in default and for a time it was feared more than half the city would be destroyed.

The American Trinity school was visited by one mutinous band which ransacked the buildings, carrying away everything of any value.

The soldiers finally were quieted when promises were circulated that their back pay would be made up. Fifty of the mutineers were arrested when it was found they were carrying bars of gold and silver from the mint. They were taken to Ichang and held under arrest in barracks there, pending sentence.

The men were said to have been angered primarily by the government's new plan of disbanding surplus troops.

Mr. and Mrs. Endicott Entertain For Friends

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Endicott of 308 North Central avenue entertained over the week-end Mrs. A. J. Johnson and daughter, Janice, of Los Angeles. They also had as their Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. William Carter, Jr., and daughter and Miss Emma Knecht, also of Los Angeles. The house was very prettily decorated in Shasta daisies and ferns.

Miss Carol Willisford Bids Friends Farewell

Miss Carol Willisford, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Willisford, former prominent local citizens, spent a few hours in Glendale Saturday bidding farewell to a number of her close friends. On Tuesday morning she leaves Los Angeles for Houston, Tex., where she will spend the summer with her parents and sister. The Willisfords have been residents of Houston since the first of the year, when Rev. Willisford accepted the ministry of the First Congregational church of that city.

Miss Willisford is one of the brightest and most popular young ladies that ever graduated from the Glendale high school, she having won a gold honor pin for her four years of excellent scholarship at the local institution. Also, her marks at Pomona college, from which school she graduated last February, were so near perfect that she was admitted to the national honor society.

Immediately following the completion of her college course at Pomona she accepted a position on the faculty of the Redondo high school, where she has been teaching English and mathematics. Upon her return to that institution next fall she has already been promised a substantial promotion.

After visiting with her folks at Houston until the first of September, Miss Willisford will return to southern California by a round-about route that will take her through most of the western and middle-western states. She will visit friends, from one to three days each, in Little Rock, St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver, Salt Lake City and San Francisco.

'DEAR KATIE' LEARNS ABOUT GLENDALE'S OUTDOOR SPORT

Horseshoe Club's Playground Is Popular Spot; About 125 Are Enrolled

Glendale, June 13, 1921.

Dear Katie—Well, today I went over on West Broadway to have a interview with the Glendale Horseshoe club.

This might sound like a blacksmith shop to you Katie, but it ain't. It is a playground where they play chess, checkers, croquet and throw horse shoes at each other.

The club has got about 125 members and their Roll Book shows as how they got members from 26 states, Canada and B. C. (wherever that is.)

Valney E. Philp is the president and W. H. Nicoles is the secy. and treas.

Anybody that is a American can join the club if they are over 21 or under 105. The admission costs 50c to get in and the dues is 25c for the quarter which sounds like even exchange. These are pre-war prices.

The club has got 5 alleys to throw horse shoes on and two fine croquet gardens. Then there is chess and checker tables in the shade. There is a lot of free seats for the visitors with the blue sky of California for a roof throu which it never leaks rain in summer.

They Knock—the Ball

All the facts Katie, I got from Old Nick (Nicoles) himself. Well, first I watched 'em play croquet for a while, to the tune of "After the Ball." But they was all knockers in that crowd Katie, which is the best I can say for 'em.

Then I went over to watch 'em throw horseshoes for a while, but Katie I don't know any more about that game than Rockefeller does about poverty.

The way some of them fellers made points made me decide that some of em was carryin a few horseshoes in their vest pockets for luck. But it looked like a innocent pastime so I got into a empty alley just to see if I could hit anything.

Well, I had the whole land's cape to throw at so I begun to practice a little.

The first shoe I throwed hit the ground behind me and the next one I throwed hit the shins of a gentleman from Indiana.

Well, then I tried a inshoot and pretty near busted up a checker game over on the next lot.

As a reporter I wasn't havin no luck with horseshoes. Well, I was just gettin warmed up to throw another one and everybody had left whatever they was doin, so they could watch me. Then one of the club members came up to me and he says he would like to see me have a nice time, so would I just as soon keep score for a checker game. So I said yes just to be obligin.

He Makes His Mark

Well Katie, what I don't know about a checker game would fill a 500 page novel, a dollar down and a dollar a week, but all I had to do was to put down a mark when somebody won a game.

There was a big crowd standin around lookin on at this game.

Well, there was 2 fellers sittin there playin and starin at those checkers like they was lookin for a needle in the haystack. After about 20 minutes, one feller got reckless and actually moved one checker.

Then they sit and stared at them checkers again.

Katie, the way they played that game would of made a snail look like he was exceedin the speed limit. Well, several years later (so it seemed) the other feller give a checker a shove.

Then the crowd in the gallery made remarks of awe, suspense, surprise, praise and sarcasm and I got so excited I didn't know as whether I was keepin score or yellin Fire.

Like Figuring Income Tax

And then they sit and frowned and puzzled again like they was figurin out a income tax and I sit and stared too, till I got dizzy and all I could see was red and black spots afore my eyes.

Well Katie, the Glendale Horseshoe Club has made three moves in the last three years and I decided that is the way checkers is played so finally I couldn't stand it no longer so I come home.

I guess I'll go down again next Friday just to see how that game is goin to come out anyway.

All the members seem to have a good time at their games Katie, and visitors are welcome anytime.

And it's croquet for knockers, checkers for speed and horse shoes for luck, but nothin but work for strivin reporters.

Yours, win or lose
E. C. HALE.

Mail carrying airplanes will land on the roof of the new government postoffice to be erected in Chicago. Cargoes will then be conveyed to motor trucks or trains via belts or tunnel cars.

If the name of any man is erroneously published in the list of draft evaders now being made public, the war department will make public apology, the secretary of war has announced. Every effort has been made to check the list but it is possible that errors might have crept into the list.

CHILDREN'S DAY AT TROPICO CHURCH DRAWS CROWD

Well Balanced Program Is Given By Little Folk; Plan Picnic July 9

Children's Day at the Tropico Presbyterian church yesterday morning was observed by all departments of the Sunday school. The church auditorium was used, but even here there was not sufficient room and chairs had to be brought in to care for the late comers. It was, perhaps, one of the most interesting gatherings held by the church in recent years.

Superintendent H. E. Fry was in charge of the exercises, assisted by S. H. Wilcox, associate superintendent. Mr. Wilcox had spent several Sundays in drilling the children in the special Children's Day songs, and these, accompanied by piano, violin and saxophone, were well rendered. The pastor baptized two children.

A host of little folks, with a well-balanced variety of songs, recitations and other exercises, made a fine showing under the direction of the primary superintendent, Mrs. S. E. Brown ,and her assistants.

Here Is Program

The program of the primary department included:

Greeting, Rosemary Gilhuly.

Recitation, "Forget-me-not," Allison Goldsborough.

Recitation and song, a number of beginners.

Recitation, "Little Lips," Helen Wilcox.

Recitation, "What Summer Brings," Mary Hartzley.

Song, "Gather Them All for Jesus," Primary Department.

Recitation, "This Day Is Ours," Blanche Lovell.

Recitation, "Children's Day," Billy Van Etten.

Recitation, "Keep Sunny," Carolyn Ashton.

Recitation, "Cloud and Sunshine," Helen Moir and Peter Van Etten.

Exercise, "Loyal Soldiers," by ten boys.

Exercise, "Flower Girls," by 14 girls.

At 7:30 o'clock tonight the officers and teachers of the Sunday school will have an important conference at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Van Etten, 331 El Bonito avenue.

On Saturday afternoon, July 9, the school will hold its annual picnic at Brookside park, Pasadena.

Settlement Of Bonus Question Now Nears

By FRAZER EDWARDS
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 13.—Settlement of the "bonus" question is at hand.

Early enactment of the soldiers' adjusted compensation bill, with five optional plans to reimburse the 4,800,000 men and women who served in the world war, was predicted today by Senator Penrose, chairman of the senate finance committee.

Since the first cash payments provided in the bill will not begin until July 1, 1922, Senator Penrose said there is no necessity to await the enactment of the tariff and tax revision measures. Revenue raising features which must originate in the house, having been eliminated from the measure, the senate will soon have the bill before it.

The bill is in substantially the same form as when first introduced and elimination of the time limit for the selection of a plan by the veterans is the chief change.

No definite plan for raising the revenue to meet the requirements of the measure has been settled upon, according to Penrose.

The plans included in the bill are:

First—"Adjusted service pay," $1 per day for each day's service in the Unted States and $1.25 for each day's service abroad.

Second—"Adjusted service certificates," insurance on a sum 40 per cent greater than his cash compensation, payable in twenty years with interest at 4½ per cent, compounded annually.

Third—"Vocational training aid" at government's expense at an amount equal to his cash compensation plus 40 per cent.

Fourth—"Farm or home aid" adjusted service pay, plus 40 per cent for home or farm.

Fifth—"Public land preference," giving veterans first choice of government lands now or hereafter to be opened.

Misleading newspaper stories of street "caveins" alleged to be caused by coal mining under Wilkes-Barre have led the Wilkes-Barre Chamber of Commerce to issue a statement denying that surface subsidence has occurred on the city streets. The stories were ridiculous, the report declares, since mining is prohibited under central locations of the city.

Experimenters are working on wireless telephones to be placed on automobiles of physicians, business men or anyone who owns an enclosed car. The instrument works successfully up to five miles. It is not necessary to have antennae high in air. Four parallel wires on six-inch posts are sufficient.

New Price Reduction Under Way, Is Claim

By RALPH F. COUCH
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 13.—A new series of reductions in prices of all commodities is beginning in nearly every section of the country, James McCoy, actuary of the treasury department, declared.

The nation-wide price-cutting wave, which began just about a year ago, has slowed during the last few months. Now price-cutting is to be resumed on a new and faster scale, it is indicated by factors which McCoy considers important.

One of these factors is an unusually big drop in the per capita circulation of money. In the month ended June 1, the per capita circulation fell off 88 cents to $56.43 a person, according to an announcement by the treasury.

"This shows conclusively that prices are falling," said McCoy. "It means that money is getting harder to obtain because there is less of it to be had. When you have to work harder to get money, it is worth more and will buy more. During the war money was inflated, plentiful and easy to obtain—that is, comparatively. That is what made all prices soar. Now that we're being deflated, the converse becomes true."

Second Hand Pair Of Trousers Thrown Away

TULARE—R. L. Barker not only had his house burglarized by a burglar: He also had his feelings hurt.

Barker got dressed up and went out for the evening. When he returned home he took off his "Sunday go to meetin' " clothes, and decided to lay out his second best suit for work the next day. On looking around he found that the trousers to the "second best" had mysteriously disappeared. Further search revealed the fact that Mrs. Barker's watch and chain were missing, as well as a 50-cent piece which had been lying on the dresser.

The next morning Barker thought of some papers he had left in the trousers' pocket, and thinking that they might have fallen out while the thief was en route, thus giving him a clue as to the direction, he began to look around in the road. He found several of the papers scattered about and while looking for the rest of them he spied his trousers under a nearby culvert, where they had been hastily thrown away.

"They are good enough for me," said Barker, wielding a whiskbroom. "These must be very prosperous days in the burglary trade when a burglar will take a watch and 50-cent piece, but scorns a good, durable, albeit second hand pair of trousers."

Love And Death In Race And Both Win

OAKLAND, Cal., June 13.—Love beat death by a fraction, but death cheated love in the great accounting.

Ten years ago John Rollin Magill, 43 years old, played the game of love, and lost. The girl of his choice married the other man, and went to the far-off Philippines as Mrs. Henry Callundon.

After a year in the Philippines, death overtook Callundon, and his widow, Sarah Wilson Callundon, returned to her home at Oakland.

Love bloomed anew for Magill and Mrs. Callundon. They became engaged, but determined to put off the wedding day until Magill had amassed sufficient wealth to retire.

Nine years slipped past. Last week plans for the wedding, to be held this month, were arranged.

Then came last Wednesday, when Magill suffered a stroke of apoplexy. Taken to St. Anthony's hospital in Oakland, Magill sent for his fiancee.

Although Dr. J. B. Enos, Magill's physician, held out no hope of recovery, Magill and his fiancee determined to triumph over the grim reaper, even though the triumph might be but a momentary one.

Stuart Gemmell, clerk of the great register at Oakland, was summoned and brought the marriage license book with him to the hospital. So weak that he was unable to sign the register, Magill scrawled a cross over the page. Then Magill's father, the Rev. Thomas James Magill of Calaveras county, said the words that made Mrs. Callundon Magill's bride.

The shadows of night closed about the hospital In a room of the hospital a bride watched by the bedside of her dying husband.

Shortly before 2 o'clock Magill's romance was ended forever, and his bride was a widow.

Harding Blankets Off New Hampshire Sheep

WALPOLE, N. H.—The Cheshire county farm bureau has issued blanket insurance against a presidential chill by sending a pair of fleecy bed coverings to the White House. These were manufactured from wool sheared from sheep raised on the hills of New Hampshire.

In a letter accompanying the gift State Senator Fred O. Smalley said: "You will be interested to know that the farmers had practically their entire 1920 wool crop converted into blankets, about 500 pairs in all. These blankets, by the way, are the old-fashioned kind, such as our grandmothers used to make. By securing a market in this way we have been able to obtain a price of about 40 cents for the raw wool, which was better than no market at all."
